The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

From the ANTIGUA GAZETTE, or PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

St. KITT's, January 30.

CAPT. Falkingham, in the Tryal sloop of war, has sent in here, one large Bermudas built sloop, loaded with sugar, melasses, cocoa and coffee; and 2 schooners deeply loaded with the same commodities; and one schooner with beef, butter, Mackrel and dry goods; all which were taken to the Southward of St. Kitts the 28 h and 29 h instant. The Tryal sails again to morrow, on a cruize.

Antigua, Feb. 14. The following are the vessels taken by his majesty's ship the Tryal, Capt. Falkingham, to the Southward of St. Kitt's.

Sloop Cæsar, Bermuda built, 120 tons burthen, 276 hogsheads of Molasses, and 15 bags of cocoa.

Schooner Le Don de Dieu, 50 tons burthen 20 hogsheads of clay'd sugar, 20 hogsheads of Melasses, 10 hogsheads of coffee, 2 hogsheads of cocoa, 1 bag of coffee, 5 cases of wine, and 1 bag of almonds.

Schooner L'Esperance 40 tons burthen, 83 barrels of beef, 60 firkins of butter, 52 barrels of Mackrel, 20 barrels of flour, and 20 barrels of lard, all new provisions.

Schooner Maria Francoise, 40 tons burthen, 7 hogsheads of middling sugars, 10 hogsheads of white, 2 hogsheads of common, and 3 hogsheads of bottoms, with 19 bags and 22 barrels of coffee.

These vessels are all fine sailors, well fitted, and in very good order.

Antigua, Feb. 17. On sunday last arrived here his majesty's ship the Winchester, Capt. Le Cras, from a cruize, in which he has taken the following vessels.

The Renard, of 80 tons, from Granada for Martinico, with about 2000 dollars, cocoa, coffee, and sugar, carried to St. Kitt's.

The Marshal de Clermont, of 350 tons, from Martinico for Nantz, with sugar, cotton, coffee, and cocoa.

The Constante Katherine, of 300 tons, from Martinico for Bourdeaux, with sugar, cotton and cocoa. These two last are carried to Barbados.

The Winchester left Barbados on wednesday last, and brings an account of a terrible fire, which happened there on sunday the 8th instant; the following particulars of which we have received from a gentleman who was on shore.

He says, that about the dusk of the evening the fire broke out in one of Mr. Backman's stores, in which was a large quantity of sulphur, oil, and other combustible matter belonging to the Humber's prize, which soon communicated itself so violently, and spread with such fury, that all efforts to extinguish it proved ineffectual: Above 100 houses (most of them fine buildings) were consumed, several lives lost, and, had it not been for the assistance of the crews of his majesty's ships Warwick and Winchester, in all probability the whole town must have been destroyed.

The fire was not quite extinguished for 2 days, and the inhabitants were constantly alarmed from monday morning 3 o'clock (the time of its abatement) to wednesday, with apprehensions of its revival, but by blowing up some houses, pulling down others and playing the engines, which they received from the men of war, it was at last totally quashed. The fire spread from the water side (where it first broke out) quite up to Broad street. The marines under the command of their officers were sent on shore to guard the French prisoners, and to prevent the negroes from plundering, which had a very good effect.

P S. We have just received a particular account of the houses burnt in Cheapside, Canary street, Bull head alley, and Crown alley, at Bridge Town; the annual rent of which amounted to 2442 l. 10 s.—The list coming too late for this paper, we must defer it till our next.

I Have waited with a great deal of Impatience for the last court of sessions, at which I had hopes of vindicating my character against J. W. that famous author of an advertisement, in which he gave a sample of his malice, wit and poetry; but alas, my hopes are frustrated by its being put off, and now I must wait another court. John Chapel.

WANTED, a good Ironer and Washer. Inquire of the Printer.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12. Last week Col. Washington arrived here from Virginia, as did the Hon. chief justice Belcher from Novascotia.

New York, Feb 16 Saturday last upwards of 100 recruits arrived here from the Westward, for the several regiments posted in this province.

New York, March 1. Friday and saturday last, upwards of 400 recruits arrived here from the Westward, for the different regiments now posted at Albany, Schenectady, &c.

We hear that the general assembly of this province, have voted 125 Spanish dollars, to be sent to Capt. Rodgers, for the services done to his country in several late excursions against the French and their Indians, near Crown Point. We hope the neighbouring governments will follow an example so truly worthy of imitation, and reward only those whose actions may deserve it.

We are credibly informed, that there was not less than 500 Indians at the late meeting at Mount Johnson in the Mohawk's country; and that many of them belonged to tribes, none of which ever attended at a treaty with the English before. 'Tis said they were in a fine humour, and that Sir William Johnson, Baronet, was using his best endeavours, to bring over several of them to the English interest.

Philadelphia, Feb. 19. Since our last, Benjamin Franklin, William Masters, and John Ross, Esqrs. have been chosen colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major of the Philadelphia regiment.

From fort Shirley, in Cumberland county, we have advice, That the beginning of this month, there were 2 Delaware Indians there, who were suspected to be in the French interest, and that on their departure from thence, they proved themselves to be so in the following manner, viz. That when they had got about half a mile from the fort, they met a man that belonged to it, hunting a horse, whom they attempted to murder, by stabbing him in the breast, but the wound did not prove mortal, and they were prevented from killing him by an Indian called the White Mingo, coming to his assistance. This Indian also informed the people at the fort what had happened; upon which a party were sent out to take them, but upon their coming up with them, they ran behind trees, fired on our people, and shot a serjeant in the leg; whereupon our men returned the fire, and shot them both, and they were immediately scalped, and their scalps carried to the fort. The scalps are since brought to town, as are likewise 2 others from Northampton county.

Boston, March 1 By a letter from fort Cumberland, in Nova-Scotia, we have a confirmation of the account published in our last paper (which we had from Halifax) of an action between Col Scott, with a party of New-England men, and a body of French and Indians, with this difference, that our people killed 1 Indian, and took 8 or 10 pair of snow shoes, a pistol, and some other trifles, but had the misfortune to lose one serjeant Read and another man, who were killed by the enemy. By this letter we are also informed, that the St. John's Indians have the small pox among them, and have lost 15 of their tribe by it; likewise that the Penobscots are almost reduced to nothing, having lost 106 of their tribe by that distemper, last summer and this winter. And also, that the peasants that remain in the country, are in the greatest misery, living in the woods, with little or nothing to support them, and must soon starve or surrender to the English, if they cannot get off to St. John's island, which they design to do, if possible.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated Feb. 9. 1756.

"Just now 6 waggons returned from the lake, they bring news, that Capt. Rogers with his party of men were returned, and brought one French prisoner with them, which they had taken near Crown Point; 2 others escaped from them: They have burnt a great many farmer's barns, that are sett'ed round about Crown-Point, and kill'd a good many of their horses, cows, and hogs.

"P. S. Just now I further hear, that the French and Indians appear pretty often of late between Saratoga and fort Edward, and that they had carried off a Connecticut man (his name was Norton, and belong'd to Farmington) and that Capt. Rogers stayed but one day in the fort, and then went out again with a fresh party.

It is said, that Mr. Norton mentioned in the above letter to be carried off, was found killed and scalped near fort Edward.

We learn that a number of officers at Albany, made a collection and presented Capt. Rodgers with a handsome suit of cloaths, and about 16 l. New-York currency, to be laid out in refreshments for him and his men.

WHEREAS the Subscriber some Months since (by an Advertisement in this Paper) published his Intention of surveying and making a Draught of the Sea-Coasts of North and South-Carolina, a great Part of which he hath already done. AND Whereas the Subscriptions in South-Carolina, have proved (as yet) too inconsiderable to enable him to pursue his Survey of this Coast: Yet, being unwilling his Design should not be compleated, He once more proposes, to survey this Coast as far as Port-Royal, if the Gentlemen in South-Carolina will only make up their Subscription One Hundred Pounds Sterling, which Sum he judges will barely pay Men's Wages and defray the Charges of his Sloop during the Survey. Those Gentlemen who are inclined to subscribe, and encourage an Undertaking so useful (and so much wanted) to the Navigation in these Parts, may apply to Mr. Thomas Smith, jun. Merchant in Charles-Town, or to the Printer hereof, either of whom will shew them the Proposals, and take in Subscriptions for

The Acadians who were sent from Nova-Scotia to Georgia, having (as we hear) obtained Leave from the Governor Reynolds to quit that Province, have built Boats to transport themselves hither; and on Monday about 200 of them, in 10 of those Boats, arrived in Wappoo Creek, within a few Miles of this Town, convoyed from Port Royal by one of our Scout Boats, lest they should attempt to do any Mischief by the Way.—What is proposed to be done with them, we have not yet learnt; but surely, it was not considered in Georgia, that we had already enough of them to maintain. We hear, these People are infatuated with a Notion, that they shall obtain Leave to pass, in like Manner, thro' all the Governments on this Side Nova-Scotia, 'till they reach it; but such have not considered, to what End they have been removed from thence.

Yesterday arrived here His Majesty's Sloop Jamaica, commanded by Samuel Hood, Esq; from a Cruize: The Particulars of which are, that on the 5th ult. in the Night, she seized a French Ship, called Les Deux Sœur, Jean Couperie Master, bound for Bourdeaux; on the 7th, a Polacre, called La St. Elme, André Teffere Master, bound for Cadiz, afterwards for Marseilles; and on the 9th, another Ship, called Les Deux Sœur, Jean Castig ian Master, bound for Bourdeaux, and a Snow, called Le Gene, Dufrene Le Gendre Master, bound for St. Malo; all from Cape François, laden with Sugars, Indico, Coffee, and Hides: These Captures were all made within 3 Leagues of the same Spot, and within as many of the West Caicos's, and none of them had been out more than 3 Days: An Order for an Embargo was brought to the Cape, the Night before the two last Vessels left it, by a Ship from France that had a Six-Weeks Passage, and they would not have been permitted to come away, had they not obtained their Clearances before: Six Ships of the Line were hourly expected at the Cape, from France. — The three last mentioned Captures arrived here Yesterday, but the first is not yet come.

Capt. Noel, from Virginia, tells us, that the Garland Man of War, commanded by Capt. Arbuthnot, was arrived there, with her two Captures; and that one of them was a New-England Schooner, which she found trading with the French.
